

Outline: The Book of Isaiah

I. Judgment (chapters 1-35)

- A. A call to Israel's judgment (1)
- B. A preview of the future of Judah and Jerusalem (2)
- C. The present view of Judah and Jerusalem (3)
- D. Another look to the future (4)
- E. Israel's demise predicted (5)
- F. The call and commission of Isaiah (6)
- G. Hope for the future (7-10)
- H. A picture of the millennial kingdom (11-12)
- I. Burdens of surrounding nations (13-23)
- J. The process and program by which the earthly throne is established (24-34)
- K. The millennium (35)

II. An Historic interlude (chapters 36-39)

(This section paints a picture of how God will deliver His people from the Great Tribulation.)

- A. King Hezekiah leads an invasion against Assyria (36)
- B. King Hezekiah prays and destroys Assyria (37)
- C. King Hezekiah's sickness, prayer, and healing (38)
- D. King Hezekiah plays the part of a fool (39)

III. Salvation (chapters 40-66)

(The Savior is revealed in the place of suffering.)

- A. The comfort of Jehovah comes through His Servant. (40-48)
- B. The salvation of Jehovah comes through His Servant (49-57)
- C. The glory of Jehovah comes through His Servant (58-66)

Discussion Questions: Isaiah

1. How does God view rote religious practices from an insincere heart (1:10-15)? How should this impact you daily?
2. What does 1:18 teach about God's mercy, and how has God's mercy impacted your personal walk with the Lord?
3. What does 1:17 mean, and how should it impact the local church today?
4. What does 2:10-17 teach about the haughty and proud?
5. What happens when people seek to follow someone other than God (3:6-7)?
6. What illustration does God use in chapter five to demonstrate His relationship to the people? Where else in Scripture do we see God use similar illustrations?
7. What can be learned from this illustration?
8. What did Isaiah see around the throne in chapter six?
9. What is significant about Isaiah's experience in chapter six?
10. What did you personally learn from your reading through Isaiah, and how will these lessons impact your life moving forward?